2024 Sponsorship Opportunities: The Cultural Landscape Foundation Walks & Talks

This relatively new and extremely popular program focused on urban landscapes features walking tours led by award-winning landscapes who offer their unique perspectives on places they see daily as they walk to work and/or through favorite public landscapes. Limited to 25 attendees and ranging from 90 minutes to three hours in duration, Walks & Talks are unscripted, mobile seminars led by design thought leaders who share their unique way of seeing the world.

Commensurate with sponsorship level, you have the opportunity to include your logo or name on the program web page, in e-blasts, recognition in the press release, and elsewhere.

About Us

The Cultural Landscape Foundation (TCLF) is a Washington, D.C.-based non-profit founded in 1998 to connect people to places. TCLF educates and engages the public to make our shared landscape heritage more visible, identify its value, and empower its stewards. Through its website, publishing, lectures, and other events, TCLF broadens support and understanding for cultural landscapes. TCLF is also home to the Cornelia Hahn Oberlander International Landscape Architecture Prize.
