The Landscape Architecture Legacy of Dan Kiley

Fall 2025

Location: Chicago

Curated by TCLF during the centennial of Dan Kiley’s Birth (2013), The Landscape Architecture of Dan Kiley exhibition features nearly 50 newly commissioned photographs of 27 of Kiley’s more than 1,000 designs including: the Miller House and Garden, Columbus, IN; the Art Institute of Chicago South Garden, IL; and the Ford Foundation Atrium, NYC, NY. The newly expanded show includes richly produced videos of former Kiley employees (Rich Haag, Joe Karr and Harriett Pattison) as well as an epilogue dedicated to the recent revitalization of the Ford Foundation Atrium.

2025 Sponsorship Opportunities: The Cultural Landscape Foundation
Traveling Photographic Exhibitions

In tandem with the Landslide® program, TCLF periodically produces traveling photographic exhibitions that illustrate the year’s thematic compendium of threatened and at-risk sites. Each exhibition features commissioned photography, narratives about the sites and theme being explored, and ways for the public to get involved. There is currently one such traveling exhibition:

About Us

The Cultural Landscape Foundation (TCLF) is a Washington, D.C.-based non-profit founded in 1998 to connect people to places. TCLF educates and engages the public to make our shared landscape heritage more visible, identify its value, and empower its stewards. Through its website, publishing, lectures, and other events, TCLF broadens support and understanding for cultural landscapes. TCLF is also home to the Cornelia Hahn Oberlander International Landscape Architecture Prize.
